Pastor David's Message

The Contrasts of Life and the Theology of the Cross

1 Peter 2:24 New International Version 24 "He himself bore our sins," in his body on the cross, so that we might die to sins and live for righteousness; "by his wounds you have been healed."

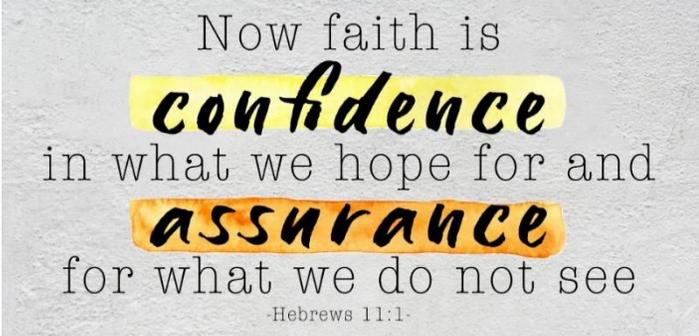

Martin Luther had a great insight on the theology of the cross. The cross helps us to deal with the contrasts of life. In his series of lectures given in 1515 and 1516 on the Book of Romans, he wrote: "For what is good for us is hidden, and that so deeply that it is hidden under its opposite. Thus, our life is hidden under death, love for ourselves under hate for ourselves... salvation under damnation, heaven under hell ... And universally our every assertion of anything good is hidden under the denial of it, so that faith may have its place in God, who is a negative essence and goodness and wisdom and righteousness, who cannot be touched except by the negation of all our affirmations."

What Martin Luther is saying is that the opposites or contrast in life awakens us, and that we are in need of a saviour. We would not know of God's love or savings acts without it. It is Jesus' victory over the cross that pulls us out of the contrast from darkness to the light. It is this process that we are tested, it is further explained in Luther's sermon, he preached: "He thrusts us into death and permits the devil to pounce on us. But it is not his purpose to devour us; he wants to test us, to purify us, and to manifest himself ever more to us, that we may recognize his love." It is the struggles of this life that makes us realize that we need a saviour. It is our own cross that we bear that we realize that we do not bear it alone. We all go through hard times; it is in these times that we may come to a Jesus moment. It is here where God's mysteries show his grace and mercy. It is like a child or baby; if they had no needs or troubles, they would not need a closer or deeper relationship with a parent. Because of the contrast in life, it can either break a person or bring them close to God who is the source of comfort and help. It is God who can help us make that choice. I believe the choice is easy.

In Christ, Pastor David

Grace News

SPRING is a time of making all things new again!

Days become longer and weather gets warmer in the temperate zone because the Earth tilts relative to its orbital plane around the Sun. In many parts of the world, it rains for hours. This helps the plants grow and flowers bloom. Wikipedia.org

After a very busy and event-filled March, we can look forward to settling into a more routine church calendar in April. From April 7th until May 5th, we will observe the season of Easter. Jesus appears to his disciples, breathes on them and says, "Receive the Holy Spirit." John 20:22 NIV. We will then take time to observe how Jesus prepares His disciples to spread the Good News, to love one another and to be His much-needed witnesses to the world after He ascends to the Father. May God also bless us to be His much-needed witness to the world this Easter season.

Grace Choir continues to practice on Thursdays at 7:00PM and we look forward to hearing anthems from Grace Choir on the 2nd & 4th Sundays. Deni invites everyone who has been thinking about joining choir to finally make the move to come out on Thursday nights at 7:00PM. You won't be disappointed because of all the health, social & spiritual benefits you will receive from singing with the choir. Take a moment to read the following article <https://www.healthline.com/health/benefits-of-singing>, and discover the many benefits.

Thank you to Full of Grace who has continued to provide a monthly Call to Worship and who are also leading the hymns on Sundays in the 11:00AM service. Full of Grace continues to provide their music ministry at Brookhaven Care Home and Brent Keith gives a short message with Bible readings and prayers to a very enthusiastic audience. Vivien Georgeson has joined us at Brookhaven to help with the scripture readings and everyone, Full of Grace and the Brookhaven residents, has an awesome time! Starting in April, Full of Grace will also be providing a chapel service at Village at Smith Creek. We are very blessed to have this music ministry in our church.

It is so good to hear and see more people in the church during the week and on Sundays. If there is an area where you would like to help out in the church or in the worship services, please contact the pastor or the office and let us know what you would like to do. If you are still undecided about coming out for Sunday worship, please consider it, we miss seeing you!

Grace Choir Practice is on Thursdays at 7:00PM. If you have any questions call Deni Skutshek 250.801.9098 or the church office 250.769.5685.

Full of Grace is the singing group leading the 11:00AM worship hymns and who perform an anthem in the 11:00AM service once a month. We could use a bass singer so if you love singing and can sing the bass-line, please contact Miriam in the office at 250.769.5685.

Men's Breakfast Second Saturday of each month 8:30AM in the Fellowship Hall unless otherwise notified.

Online Services We continue to record one Sunday worship service each week, and our sound booth team makes it ready for viewing on Sunday afternoon. If you have provided the Church Office with an email address, the video link will be sent to you on Sunday or Monday. If you do not receive it in your email box, it might have gone into Junk Mail or spam folder.
